Chameleon Collaborative and Kaleidoscope Announce Founding Partnership to Revolutionize AI-Powered Prospect Intelligence for Nonprofits

Aberdeen, Maryland — December 2025 — Chameleon Collaborative, LLC is proud to announce its designation as a Founding Partner of Kaleidoscope, a leading provider of AI analytics and data solutions built to streamline securities research and financial data analysis. This strategic partnership equips Chameleon Collaborative and its network of collaborators with advanced tools to gain deeper donor-insight, enabling nonprofits—especially in higher education—to identify, engage, and inspire transformational philanthropic support.

Kaleidoscope, founded in 2017 and launched in 2019, pioneered the use of machine-learning and AI technologies to deliver comprehensive research and visualization of securities and regulatory data. It serves corporations, law firms, government agencies, and other sectors with a mission to make centralized securities and regulatory research easy to use and easily accessible.

Through this partnership, Chameleon Collaborative's network can:

- Access Kaleidoscope's AI-powered research tools to analyze securities and financial profiles efficiently.
- Identify high-capacity prospects by uncovering wealth indicators and giving signals.
- Strengthen qualification and portfolio development with actionable data insights.
- Provide clients with deeper intelligence that accelerates major-gift opportunities and sustained donor impact.

Nayeli Garcia, Founder of Chameleon Collaborative, LLC: "I have been in this sector long enough that I remember pulling together SEC information manually. To be able to combine this intelligence with other prospect research tools makes our recommendations powerful, actionable, and transformational."

Raul Peralta, CEO & Co-Founder of Kaleidoscope: "We're excited to team up with Chameleon Collaborative. We've been proud to serve a growing number of nonprofits with Kaleidoscope's AI tools, and this collaboration lets us extend that impact even further—equipping more advancement teams with the intelligence they need to identify and engage high-capacity donors faster and more effectively."
